THE BRAND

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND GLOBAL CAMPUS (UMGC)

Celebrating over 75 years of excellence, University of Maryland Global Campus provides higher education and support services for working adults and the military. UMGC creates opportunities for every student to achieve success by removing systemic barriers to access and providing them with the precise knowledge, skills, abilities, perspectives, and support they need to succeed.

Founded in 1947 to serve working adults and the military community, University of Maryland Global Campus started as the College of Special and Continuation Studies, a branch of the University of Maryland's College of Education, with locations in College Park and around the state.

UMGC established itself as a global university by being the first institution to send professors overseas to educate active-duty servicemembers in Europe in 1949. In the mid-1990s, UMGC became a pioneer in online education and has grown to become the largest public university in the nation.

Today, UMGC enrolls nearly 100,000 students annually, making it the largest public university in the United States. UMGC also serves students at more than 175 locations worldwide and offers more than 135 programs, including bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs and undergraduate and graduate certificates. UMGC partners with students throughout their learning journey to help them Succeed Again.

MISSION

Inspire hope, empower dreams, and transform lives . . . one student at a time.

VISION

UMGC aspires to be the school of choice for adults and business because we are learner-centric, data-driven, and skills-based.

CORE VALUES

Celebrate Diversity

Our welcoming of diverse perspectives and ideas differentiates us and drives innovation.

Optimize Agility

Curiosity and adaptability—informed and guided by data—drive continuous improvement and transformation.

Reach Beyond

Courage and willingness to challenge boundaries lead to transformative solutions, for our institution and our learners alike.

Embrace Collaboration

Teamwork, effective communication, and clarity of purpose drive success.

CONSUMER INSIGHT

At University of Maryland Global Campus, we know that adults make the best students thanks to the depth and breadth of their life experience. Our prospective students are successful adults who want even more out of life. Some have built successful careers in fields that don't require higher education but want to make the leap into a field that does. Others have served their country in the military and are looking to carry that success over into a civilian career. Still others have built successful careers on the foundation of a bachelor's degree but want to move into management or into a more in-demand field. Regardless of what brings them to UMGC, we help them build on their already-rich life experience and prepare for their next success.

Our students have gained life and work experience, have a strong sense of self, and know higher education can help them Succeed Again. They are driven, creative problem-solvers but they are fighting against adult inertia and need reassurance that the cost, time commitment, and burdens placed on their other responsibilities (such as childcare) will be worth it.

CURRENT STUDENT PERSONAS

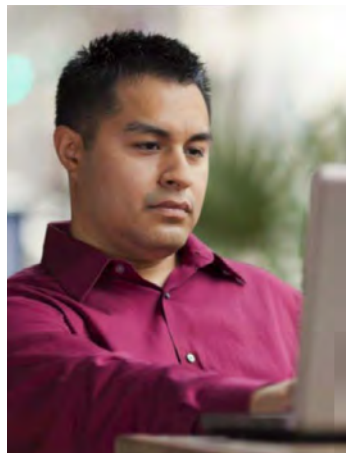

FINISH FIONA

Fiona wants to set an example for her children by completing her degree. Not only will completing the degree allow her to provide a better life for her family, it will finally make her feel like a “real” professional and give her the confidence that she can succeed. Cost is a concern, but time is Fiona’s biggest challenge.

MILITARY MIKE

Mike is motivated to use his Tuition Assistance to get his degree. He is nervous about doing well academically and worries about being able to spend time with his fiancé given his limited free time away from his duties in the military.

DEGREE DANNY

Danny is mid-level in his career and is seeking career advancement. He is concerned about how to work, spend time with his family, and continue to work out while getting his degree. Danny doesn’t like the idea of college and would prefer one that is mostly self-directed.

BARRIER BLAKE

Blake has hit a wall in her career and needs an advanced degree to move up the ladder. She is independent and self motivated for success, but not excited about going back to school. She is single but extremely busy with overtime and involvement in a cycling club.

DESPERATELY SEEKING SUSAN

Susan struggles financially to support herself and her family. As a single parent, she works more than one job at times just to make ends meet. Susan hasn’t figured out what program or career is right for her but is leaning toward healthcare.

REASONS TO BELIEVE

75+ years of experience helping working adults and military servicemembers achieve their higher education goals by providing education that meets their needs and is backed by the reputation of an accredited, public, state university.

Skills-based education to develop specific professional skills designed to move your career forward.

Programs that help you build enduring skills in leadership, communication, critical thinking, and more

Programs that incorporate education on the application of emerging technology including AI, data science, innovation, and more

Financial resources and tools to help make your education more affordable

No-cost digital materials in place of expensive textbooks for most courses

Earn up to 90 credits from prior learning and relevant life and job experience toward a bachelor's or transfer up to 12 credits toward a master's degree.

REASONS TO BELIEVE

Faster paths to credentials thanks to generous credit awards for prior learning, military experience, and training and our alliances with alternative credit providers like Springboard, Study.com, Sophia, MedCerts, StraighterLine, and others.

Programs designed to help you prepare for the career you want

- 135+ Degrees & Certificates
- Online & Hybrid Courses Available

Lifetime career services, resources, and tools at no additional cost

Consistently listed as a top-ranked military- and veteran-trusted school

Dedicated success coaches that are with you from the day you start to help you reach your goals

BRAND POSITIONING

For working adults who are driven and creative problem-solvers, University of Maryland Global Campus, a state university, provides an affordable, accredited, online education with support services specifically designed to meet students' needs and career goals. UMGC students feel accomplished and confident in their ability to achieve their vision.

BRAND PURPOSE

University of Maryland Global Campus exists to democratize opportunity. What we have said from the beginning is that the potential to learn, to learn well, to learn thoroughly, is not owned by the few. It is possessed by the many. We're here to help our students get to the table of opportunity that America promises for every person.

BRAND TONE

Our students have busy lives, family responsibilities, goals, and dreams. No matter how challenging or complicated it can be to go the extra mile, our students dig in and do more. That's how our students have succeeded in the past and how they'll succeed again. After all, that's what it takes to build the future they want. Our brand tone reflects this optimism and confidence.

BRAND ARCHITECTURE

UMGC exists to...

BRAND PURPOSE

Democratize Opportunity

So that they feel...

EMOTIONAL BENEFIT

Accomplished and confident in their ability to achieve the vision of where they want to be

UMGC provides...

FUNCTIONAL BENEFIT

A credible and reputable university with a strong tradition of high-quality education and programs in in-demand fields

For...

TARGET AUDIENCE

Working adults who are driven and creative problem-solvers, who have a vision of where they want to be and are considering higher education as a means to help them achieve that vision

BRAND VOICE

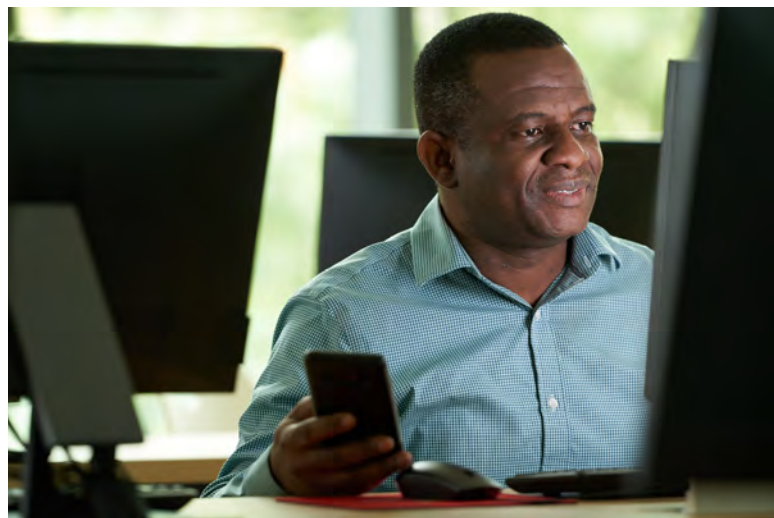

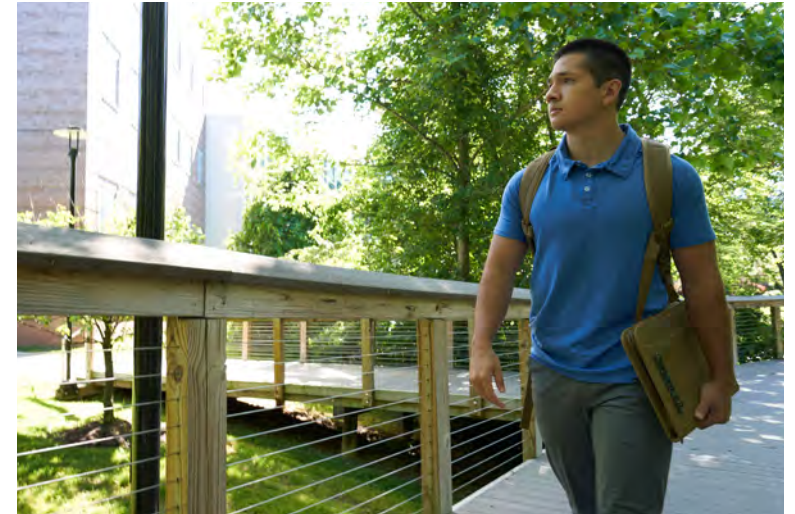

Voice Characteristic	Description	Do	Don't
PASSION	We exist to democratize opportunity. That's a big, bold goal that may not be easy to achieve but is easy to rally around. This purpose and passion drive us in the same way the desire for a better life drives our students.	Use upbeat, optimistic language and a punchy pace. Show we care.	Use passive language or long phrases.
HUMANITY	We keep it real. Like a good coach, we celebrate the wins—including the small ones—but are also unapologetically honest when the road is rocky. Our authentic, genuine approach lets our students know we are real people who understand them and want to connect with them.	Demonstrate leadership with a relatable, conversational, and personable voice.	Use cold corporate speak.
DETERMINATION	We ascribe to a growth mindset and encourage our students to as well. Where others see challenges, we see opportunities to grow and learn. We lead by example with a determined voice that conveys that we are committed to our students' success.	Encourage and motivate without pretending it's easy.	Sound defeatist or negative. Resignation is not in our vocabulary.
SWAGGER	Our students hustle to achieve their goals and for more than 75 years, we've been doing it right along with them. Our experience and their get-it-done spirit, energy, and confidence result in a little swagger (in a likeable way).	Convey that we have what it takes and so do our students.	Come across as arrogant or smug.

VISUAL GUIDELINES

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography focuses primarily on the drive and creative problem-solving it takes for working adults to achieve their dreams. Our high-contrast, authentic, and candid lifestyle imagery features optimism and energy. Students and graduates featured in images should have an original style that is also aspirational and conveys their confidence as well as their sense of accomplishment. They look current but authentic. They don't look as though they just walked out of a catalog.

UMGC images are bright, diverse, relatable, optimistic slice-of-life images that depict real vignettes. Hand-held camera shots that place the viewer in the composition are preferred, as is natural lighting and a range of focus on secondary elements. Pops of color perform well. Except for testimonial photos, avoid using images of people smiling into the camera, which may be viewed as inauthentic. Also avoid repeated images of people looking at computer screens, which are overused in our industry. Movement is important.

UMGC MILITARY PHOTOGRAPHY

UMGC has a deep military history, and UMGc military photography aims to honor military servicemembers and their families with precise attention to detail. All usage of military-themed imagery, including but not limited to logos, seals, medals, etc., must comply with DoD guidelines and trademark use requirements.

When developing and distributing promotional materials that include military-themed imagery, the following disclaimer should appear verbatim:

“The appearance of U.S. Department of Defense visual information does not imply or constitute DoD endorsement.”

For more information regarding guidelines, contact the marketing department.

Stock Military Photography

UMGC stock military photography must follow UMGc’s general brand photography guidelines and several other strictly enforced standards.

- Military dress uniforms should not be featured.
- Operational or working uniforms must be the most recent camouflage patterns for the branch.
- The only insignia a uniform can include is the American flag.
- Do not “reflect” military imagery, as insignia appears on specific sides of uniforms.
- Individuals in military uniform should be featured in a manner that abides by branch regulation (i.e., hair cut/style, stance, etc.).
- Military aircraft, vehicles, and vessels should only be shown if necessary and then only if there are no identifiable marks or features.
- Do not use images with military paraphernalia in reference to specific operations or time periods unless their historical accuracy can be verified.

UMGC TESTIMONIALS

Any testimonial must meet the following criteria:

- The image must be of an actual UMGc student or UMGc graduate.
- The image must be authentic, meaningful, and relevant to the student or graduate's story.
- Everyone pictured must have signed a UMGc release form.* Visit umgc.edu/releaseform.

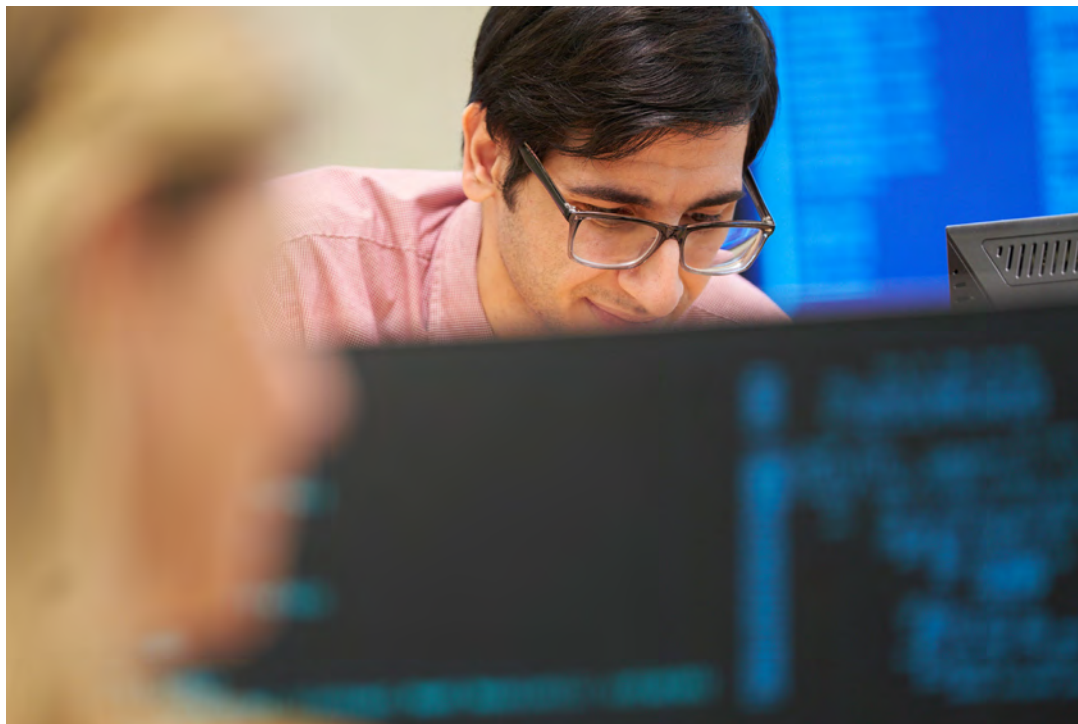

Any testimonials featuring an image of a uniformed servicemember must meet the following additional criteria:

- The student or graduate must be a veteran. Featuring an active-duty servicemember or reservist may require additional approvals and disclaimers. Contact the marketing department regarding usage guidelines.
- If insignia are shown, identifiable, or trademarked, logos/graphics, and name badges must be removed.
- Do not "reflect" military imagery, as insignia appears on specific sides of uniforms.
- Any wording or landmarks that are identifiable to a specific installation must be removed.
- Avoid using images of servicemembers in dress uniforms when possible.
- Individuals in military uniform should be featured in a manner that abides by branch regulation (i.e., haircut/style, stance, etc.).

When developing and distributing promotional materials that include military-themed imagery, the following disclaimer should appear verbatim:

"The appearance of U.S. Department of Defense visual information does not imply or constitute DoD endorsement."

*These guidelines are for marketing and promotional pieces. A release form may not be necessary for newsworthy/informational purposes. See UMGc's privacy policy for more details at www.umgc.edu/privacy.

UMGC PROGRAM PHOTOGRAPHY

UMGC's academic photography should abide by UMGc's general brand photography standards while featuring adults in professional attire. Generic professional imagery is acceptable, as are professionals in their chosen field of study or professionals actively studying online. These images must have program department approval to ensure everything in the image is an accurate representation of the program.

LOGO GUIDELINES

OUR LOGO IS OUR BRAND

Our logo identifies the UMGC brand to the world. It was thoughtfully designed and qualitatively and quantitatively tested. Consistent usage of our logo strengthens our name and reputation.

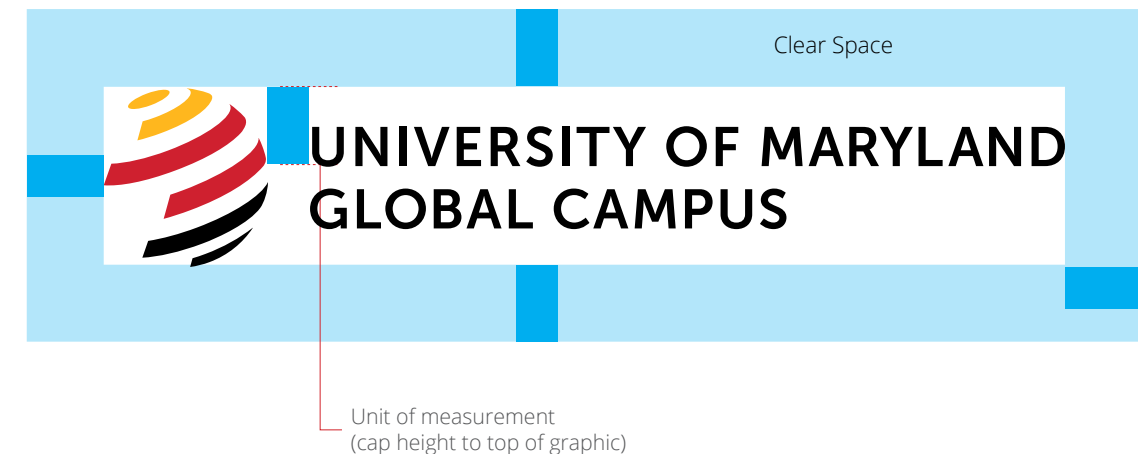

Every element of the logo has meaning and comes together to communicate who we are. It should be respected and valued and be treated with dignity. In every instance, the logo must be unobstructed and unaltered, so it can quickly be seen and recognized on all communications. The following pages provide guidelines on usage.

THE LOGO CONCEPT

The University of Maryland Global Campus logo emphasizes the university's worldwide presence with an instantly recognizable image: a globe. The globe also communicates our international reputation for academic excellence and the portability of our programs. The gold, red, and black colors are a nod to the Maryland state flag and signal the respect we've earned as part of the University System of Maryland. They also represent our three divisions: Stateside, Europe, and Asia. The logomark is clean and contemporary. Its angled, curved bands flow upward, suggesting motivation, momentum, and progress for our goal-driven student body. The bands do not fully form a complete globe for a reason: They represent open access, lifelong learning, and constant innovation and evolution as we strive to create a world of possibilities for our students. There is always more to learn, and University of Maryland Global Campus is here to help, providing higher education to working adults and servicemembers no matter where life takes them.

PREFERRED LOGO

This is the preferred logo. It should be used whenever possible.

PREFERRED-ALTERNATE LOGO

The preferred-alternate logo may be used in spaces where the preferred logo will not fit or when the preferred logo's text may not be legible due to its small size.

AFFILIATE MARKETING AND PARTNERSHIP LOGOS

When the university has a contract with a partner organization, co-branding may be appropriate. Please consult with the contracting partner to ensure that co-branding follows both UMGC's and the partner organization's brand guidelines and usage.

- A partner logo may be placed to the right of the preferred UMGC logo.
- The preferred UMGC logo and the partner logo are separated by a 0.5 pt., medium gray (#ADADAD) vertical rule with unit of measurement of horizontal space on either side of the rule.
- The partner logo is centered vertically within the height of the vertical rule.
- The space between the UMGC logo and adjacent borders should be a cap height to top of graphic.

ACCEPTABLE AND UNACCEPTABLE USES OF LOGO ELEMENTS

The logo is a registered trademark of University of Maryland Global Campus. The graphic and typography together constitute the official logo. Therefore, these elements may not be altered under any circumstances, nor may elements be extracted and used for other purposes unless expressly authorized by the marketing department. Variations are forbidden. Only use provided artwork and templates. Below are some examples of acceptable uses:

OK to use the color logo across a light area of a photograph or illustration if there is enough contrast and a clear space for the logo

OK to use the reversed logo across a dark area of a photograph or illustration if there is enough contrast and a clear space for the logo

OK to use the black logo on a single color application

OK to use the acronym logo where space is limited

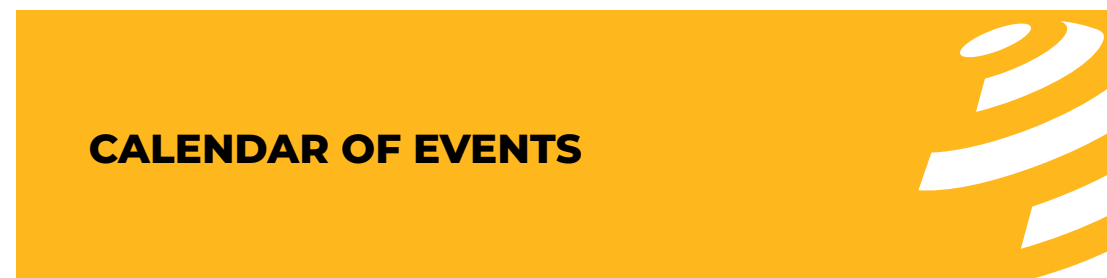

Below are some examples of unacceptable uses:

DO NOT use portions of the globe logo as separate graphic elements.
DO NOT alter the design of the globe. It is designed to be an open globe.

DO NOT use the globe as a graphic element.

DO NOT change or alter the colors or the way the logo elements are arranged.

DO NOT use the graphic element without the type or the type without the graphic element.

DO NOT condense or stretch the graphic or type.

More examples of unacceptable uses:

DO NOT reposition the type in relation to the graphic.

DO NOT add a department name. Contact Marketing for guidance in atypical situations.

DO NOT add additional descriptors.

DO NOT place the logo across a full-color photograph without a clear space for the logo.

DO NOT mix color and reversed elements of the logo.

UMGC SEAL

The official university seal consists of the Maryland state flag rendered as a shield. The shield is supported on one side by a farmer and on the other by a fisherman. Above the shield are an earl's coronet and a full-faced helmet. Below the shield is the founding year of UMGC. The university's name encircles the seal. As the university seal is a formal symbol of University of Maryland Global Campus, it is intended for use only on official applications, such as certificates, diplomas, and invitations, or special communications from the Office of the President. The seal is also used on MyUMGC (<https://my.umgc.edu>) to immediately convey that this site is official, secure, and endorsed by UMGC. The seal should not be used in close proximity to the logo. The shape, content, and colors of the seal are fixed and must not be altered in any way. Please consult with UMGC's art director before using the UMGC seal.

PREFERRED HORIZONTAL UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF MARYLAND (USM) LOGO

UMGC uses only the horizontal USM logo. Use of any other USM logo is limited to certain signs and promotional materials such as buttons and requires special approval. The USM logos and Brand Identity Guide are available at www.usmd.edu/usm/logo/#downloads.

MULTIMEDIA GUIDELINES

MUSIC AND VIDEO USE GUIDELINES

All music and videos must comply with copyright rules, including any usage rights requirements by platform and distribution.

Music

Music tones should be upbeat and optimistic and align with the tone of the piece. Do not use music that is polarizing or contains explicit language or content.

Video

Video content should be authentic and align with the intent of the piece and platform. Do not use footage that is polarizing or contains explicit language or content.
